

Title I Home – School Compact

Name: _____ Date: _____

Students are more likely to do well in school when they work hard and when they have the support of their home and school working together. As active partners in helping our children do well in school and achieve state standards, the following commitments for success are outlined below:

The school staff will

- treat all students in a caring and respectful manner;
- provide meaningful, effective learning opportunities;
- provide a high quality curriculum and high quality instruction;
- provide a safe, supportive place for children and adults; and
- communicate regularly with the home about student progress, curriculum decisions, and other school matters.
